A suite of outstanding performers and acts are heading to South Gippsland. As our local halls are set to be brimming with outstanding talent, here's a preview of the exciting events to come.

Casting Off

An acrobatic comedy of three women who wear multi-coloured hand-knitted costumes will grace the stage of the Mirboo and Strzelecki Hall's. The terrific trio will share their lives and ideas while holding each other up both literally and metaphorically. Here are the details for their two shows:

- Saturday 24 August from 1.30pm at the Mirboo Hall – 19 Clear Creek Road, Mirboo. Local singer-songwriter Aeroforms will be supporting this show, enchanting you with her mesmerising looping folk songs.
- Sunday 25 August from 1.30pm at the Strzelecki Hall – 1476 Korumburra-Warragul Road, Strzelecki. This event will be supported by local favourites Stony Six who together create joyous and buoyant contemporary acoustic music.

Tickets are $20 for anyone over 16 and free for children under 15.

Sound of Silent

The Sounds of Silent are a five-piece ensemble featuring some of Melbourne's most versatile and accomplished musicians.

Recreating the silent movie experience from the 1920s and 30s, they blend that with improvised performances featuring music that was in style during that period. While in South Gippsland, the Sound of Silent will be taking their audience back to the 'Circus' by Charlie Chaplin.

The event is a vibrant and entertaining musical and movie the whole family can enjoy.

There are three events to choose from:

- Friday 13 September from 7.00pm at the Bena Hall – 41 Main Road, Bena.
- Saturday 14 September from 7.00pm the Mirboo North Shire Hall – 30 Ridgway, Mirboo North.

- Sunday 15 September from 1.30pm at the Welshpool Hall – Main Street, Welshpool.

Tickets are $20 for anyone over 16 and free for children under 15.
