- The hirer may decorate the room on the condition all decorations are removed by the hirer at the end of the function and no damage is incurred to property.
- The room is to be returned to its original state prior to hire, ie no items are to be left on the premises, as any costs incurred by Council in the removal of items will be forwarded on to the hirer.
- South Gippsland Shire Council accepts no responsibility for damage or loss of goods, merchandise or materials left at its venues prior to, during or after the function.

6. PARKING

Parking spaces for two (2) vehicles are available at the back of the Library building. Off street parking is also available.

7. SMOKING

Smoking is not permitted in South Gippsland Shire Council buildings.

8. CLEANING

General cleaning is included in the venue hire. An additional fee may be charged where an event generates cleaning beyond the normal level.

9. CATERING

In Victoria, all commercial businesses, community groups, and individuals who prepare, store or handle food for sale must be registered with their municipal Council.

If you intend to provide food for sale at your meeting, function or event, please contact Council's Environmental Health Team to discuss your intention further and obtain registration if required. Food for sale includes food provided in the price of an entry ticket (i.e. dinner dance). The hirer shall ensure that its staff, contractors and participants comply with all liquor licensing laws, including the avoidance of drunkenness or inappropriate behaviour and especially prevent consumption of alcohol for any persons under the age of 18 years. Catering can be organised through a catering service or the hirer can provide supplies.

All rubbish and bottles are to be removed from the room at the end of the event. Additional cleaning charges will be imposed as a result of excessive rubbish.

10. DO YOU NEED A LIQUOR PERMIT?

All events where alcohol is served and money transacted in the form of direct sales, admission charged, raffle tickets sold, auction conducted, or any other fundraising activity during the event, are required by law to have a temporary liquor permit. Clubs with current and valid liquor licenses can organise for a temporary extension. For others, permits can be applied for and received online at: http://www.vcglr.vic.gov.au/home/liquor/new+applicants/apply/apply_for_a_temporary_limited_licence. The Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) will determine, on application, if Responsible Serving of Alcohol (RSA) qualified staff are required to be in attendance.

11. COMPLIANCE

The hirer and invited guests will conduct the event in an orderly manner in full compliance with South Gippsland Shire Council policies, i.e. Occupational Health and Safety, and within all applicable laws.

When leaving the premises the hirer must ensure that all doors and windows are securely locked and all guests have vacated the building.

The hirer and invited guests will conduct the event in an orderly manner in full compliance with South Gippsland Shire Council policies, ie Occupational Health and Safety, and within all applicable laws.
